Exploring for Personality Style Awareness

a presentation by Pat Johns and PFJ Communications

A light-hearted, humorous, yet very practical and powerful look at the well accepted concept of "Personality Styles". We can't escape our nature, so we might as well harness a working knowledge of this life changing communications tool.

We will focus on the key word,

VERSATILITY

Versatility is described as being what other people need us to be, to efficiently and effectively achieve our goals together.

This program is a must!
